Greetings

It is our great pleasure that Asian Pacific Organization for Cancer Prevention (APOCP) and the National Cancer Center, Korea host the fifth Regional Conference of APOCP from November 2 to 3, 2011 at the International Conference Hall in National Cancer Center, Korea located in Goyang, which is just nearby the capital city Seoul.

The burden of cancer has rapidly increased in Asian Pacific countries and it is time to the prevention of cancer for all without any exception in Asia Pacific region.

To help control cancer successfully, the Regional Conference 2011 will focus on sharing experiences of cancer control activities in registration, policy and research from different resource settings. Regional networking and international collaboration are challenges to be forced. We would like to offer you a good opportunity to exchange knowledge, from networks and also discover the culture, cuisine and scenic surroundings in dynamic Korea.

Keun-Young Yoo
Secretary-General, APOCP

Jin-Soo Lee
President, National Cancer Center Korea
